

TORONTO GARLIC FESTIVAL 2017

One could experience garlic in the 60s, (the 1860s!) at the 7th Toronto Garlic Festival. People met farmers, chefs and health experts. They could taste delicious garlic dishes, spirits, desserts and stock up on garlic. There were cooking demos, contests, VR demos, talks, live music all free with $5 admission and free for children under 12. Fresh garlic, food and drinks were for sale.
