Carman's Restaurant Wood Fired Garlic Bread
Featured at 5th Annual Toronto Garlic Festival

(Toronto – Sept 16, 2015) Beers are cooling, and local chefs are busily chopping, mincing and marinating and roasting, all in anticipation of Sunday's garlic extravaganza. The Toronto Garlic Festival is back with a vengeance, featuring unique foods, craft beers and exciting events presented in a down-home atmosphere. "This will be our best festival so far" says founder Peter McClusky

Many dishes were created especially for the festival, including the Gin-Gar Lamb Sausage made with a unique combination of flavours. This grilled sausage from Grey County is made from 100% Grey County Lamb, Roasted Ontario Garlic and a Ginger Pomace, served with a Garlic-Infused Dipping Mayo. And for vegetarians, there's Corn Tortillas with Garlic Mole and your selection of fresh, locally-sourced toppings, and Smoked Salmon Lox with Lemon Roasted Garlic Hummus and Dill. Specially featured this year is Arthur Carman's original Wood Oven Toasted Garlic Bread with garlic chopped on-the-spot. For a morning pick-me-up try The South Indian Coffee Infused With Fresh Ontario Garlic Butter, topped with Maple Cream and Pumpkin Vanilla Dust. Don't forget to try a Fresh-Made Donut with Black Garlic Caramel Sauce.

60 vendors offer myriad local garlic - including rare and heirloom varieties. Garlic jellies and jams, relish and dips, fresh herbs and specialty items, and garlic paraphernalia are also available for purchase. Visitors can quaff exceptional brews, fine wines and homemade beverages like Meredith's Ginger Syrup.

Presenting sponsor Organics Live and The Toronto Garlic Festival bring together garlic lovers, farmers, chefs, craft brewers, artisans and scientists to celebrate the fifth anniversary at a new location, Artscape Wychwood Barns, on Sunday September 20.

Artscape Wychwood Barns is located at 601 Christie St., just south of St Clair Ave., less than 10-minute walk west from the St. Clair West subway station.
